Dear Parents and Carers

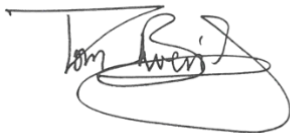

It is hard to believe we have come to the end of a half term in which remote learning has become the 'new normal'. I am sure there have been many difficult times for you all over the last 5 weeks, and I would like to thank you all for your continued support for your children and our school.

As I stated in the video message last week, staff are working hard to continue to develop our approaches to remote learning, and we will continue to issue guidance to parents and carers next half term. In the meantime, yesterday the government released some further guidance to parents and carers, the guidance is available here: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/help-secondary-school-children-continue-their-education-during-coronavirus-covid-19#>

Today I have written separately to the parents and carers of Years 10 and 12 students regarding the government proposals for some face-to-face provision. This, along with all other communication, is available in the 'Alderbrook School Coronavirus Information' area of our website.

I wish you all a very happy and safe half term break,

Very best wishes

Tom Beveridge
Headteacher
