

ALDERBROOK SCHOOL

HISTORY DEPARTMENT

Homework Booklet: Select one question to complete for each piece of homework. The idea is to select the question you are weakest at in order to improve.

Conflict and Tension

Question 1

Source D is opposing the Treaty of Versailles. How do you know?
(4 marks)

Source D is opposing the Treaty of Versailles. How do you know?
(4 marks)

Source D is criticising Germany. How do you know?
(4 marks)

THE RECKONING.
PAN-GERMAN. "MONSTROUS, I CALL IT. WHY, IT'S FULLY A QUARTER OF WHAT WE SHOULD HAVE MADE THEM PAY, IF WE'D WON."

Source D is criticising Germany. How do you know?
(4 marks)

Conflict and tension, 1918–1939

Source D A cartoon published in Britain in February 1919 entitled 'Giving Him Rope'.

Source D is criticising the LON. How do you know this?

(4 Marks)

The Source is criticising the League of Nations. How do you know this?

4 marks

Question 2

How useful are source 12 and 13 to a historian studying the Manchurian crisis, 1931-33? (12 marks)

THE DOORMAT.

Source 13

I was sad to find everyone at the league so dejected. The Assembly was a dead thing. The Council was without confidence in itself. Benes the Czechoslovakia leader who is not given to hysterics said (about the people at the league) 'They are too frightened. I tell them we are not going to have a war now; we have five years before us, perhaps six. We must make the most of them.'

Letter from a British visitor of the league

How useful are source 17 and 18 to a historian studying the reactions of the Treaty of Versailles? (12 marks)

Source 18 A cartoon from the Daily Herald 1919

Source 17

An extract from the diary of Edward House, one of Wilsons top officals, 29th June 1919

Looking at the conference in retrospect there is much to approve and much to regret. It easy to say what should have been done, but more difficult to have a found a way for doing it.

While I have should a preferred a different peace, I doubt whether it could have been made, for the ingredients for such a peace as I would have had were lacking.

How useful are source 29 and 32 to a historian studying attitudes towards the policy of appeasement? (12 marks)

Source 32 A cartoon by David Low, 18th July 1938. Titled “What’s Czechoslovakia to me anyway.” The rocks read “Anglo-French security, French alliance, Rumanina, Poland, Czech..’

Source 29

The Daily Express comments on the Munich Agreement, 30th September 1938

People of Britain, your children are safe. Your husbands and your sons will not march to war. Peace is a victory for all mankind. If we must have a victor, let us choose Chamberlain, for the Prime Minister’s conquests are mighty and enduring – millions of happy homes and hearts relieved the burden.

Question 3

Write an account of the (Choose an event from the option below) AND

Explain its significance.

8 marks

- Manchurian Crisis
- Abyssinian Crisis
- Reoccupation of the Rhineland
 - Anschluss

Question 4 + 4 SPAG

‘The main cause of German dissatisfaction with the peace settlement was reparation payments.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer (16 marks)

‘The main reason for the failure of the league of nations was the absence of the United States.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. (16 marks)

‘The main reason for the failure of the league of nations was the rise of Hitler.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. (16 marks)

‘The main reason to blame for the start of the Second World War was Britain’s policy of appeasement.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. (16 marks)