

Practice questions for the different themes:

Relationships and families:

1 markers:

- Which word best describes a sexual relationship between a man and a woman?
A- Homosexual B – heterosexual C- Metrosexual D- Transsexual
- What is meant by the term divorce?
A- Separation B- ending a relationship C- living D- legal ending of marriage

4 markers:

- Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society to sex before marriage.
In your answer, you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious tradition.
- Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about contraception.
In your answer, you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious tradition.
- Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society to remarriage.
In your answer, you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious tradition.
- Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about homosexuality .
In your answer, you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious tradition.

5 markers:

- Explain two religious beliefs about gender equality. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.
- Explain two religious beliefs about the role of parents. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.
- Explain two religious beliefs about adultery. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.
- Explain two religious beliefs about divorce. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.
-

12 markers:

- 'Religious believers should never be sexist.'
- 'Ceremonies for remarriage should not be allowed in places of worship.'
- 'Marriage ceremonies are out of date nowadays.'
- 'Same-sex parents are just as good at bringing up children as other parents.'

Religion and Life:

2 markers:

Give 2 reasons why religious believers might oppose animal experimentation.

Give two ways humans are abusing the world's natural resources.

4 markers:

- Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about abortion.
In your answer, you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious tradition.
- Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about euthanasia.
In your answer, you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious tradition.
- Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about animal experimentation.
In your answer, you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious tradition.
- Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about the origin of the universe.
In your answer, you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious tradition.

5 markers:

- Explain two religious beliefs about what happens when a person dies. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.
- Explain two religious beliefs about euthanasia. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.

12 markers:

‘Religious believers should not eat meat.’

‘There must be life after death.’

‘Abortion should only be allowed if the mother’s life is in danger.’

‘What happens in the next life depends on how this life is lived.’

Religion, peace and conflict:

1 markers:

- Which one of the following most accurately means a violent protest?
-A a demonstration –B a riot -C a strike -D a march

2 markers:

- Give two reasons for war.

4 markers:

- Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about whether countries should possess weapons of mass destruction.
In your answer, you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious tradition.

5 markers:

- Explain two religious beliefs about helping victims of war. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.
- Explain two religious beliefs about war. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.
- Explain two religious beliefs about peace. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.
- Explain two reasons why religious believers should help victims of war. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.

12 markers:

- ‘The best way to bring about world peace is for more individuals to become pacifists.’
- ‘The just war theory is the best religious response to whether it is right for you to fight.’

Religion, crime & punishment:

1 markers:

Which of the following is an aim of punishment?

- A) Prison B) Deterrence C) Forgiveness D) Murder

2 markers:

- Give two different causes of crime.

4 markers:

- Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about using the death penalty as a punishment.
In your answer, you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious tradition.
- Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about corporal punishment.
In your answer, you should refer to the main religious tradition of Great Britain and one or more other religious tradition.

5 markers:

- Explain two religious beliefs about the treatment of offenders. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.
- Explain two religious beliefs reasons why some people commit crimes. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.
- Explain two reasons why religious believers believe reformation is the best aim of punishment. Refer to scripture or sacred writings in your answer.

12 markers:

- 'It is right to forgive all offenders whoever they are and whatever they have done.'