The Oneness of God

Beliefs about God

- Sunni and Shi'a Muslims believe that there is only one God; Tawhid.
- Islam is a monotheistic religion.
- The Arabic word for God is Allah.
- The Shahadah shows the belief in one God. "There is one God but Allah and Muhammad is his prophet."
- God is an undivided entity.
- No one else and no other object has God's attributes or qualities.
- The only sin that God will not forgive is the sin of shirk. Which is attributing God-like qualities to any other being or thing.

"He is God the One, God the eternal. He begot no one nor was He begotten. No one is comparable to him."

"You who believe, obey God and the Messenger."

They show their belief in their daily lives.

They make God their number 1 priority

Live according to God's will

They worship God

The impact of these beliefs on Muslims

"Misfortunes can only happen with God's permission."

They respect the prophets (not worship them)

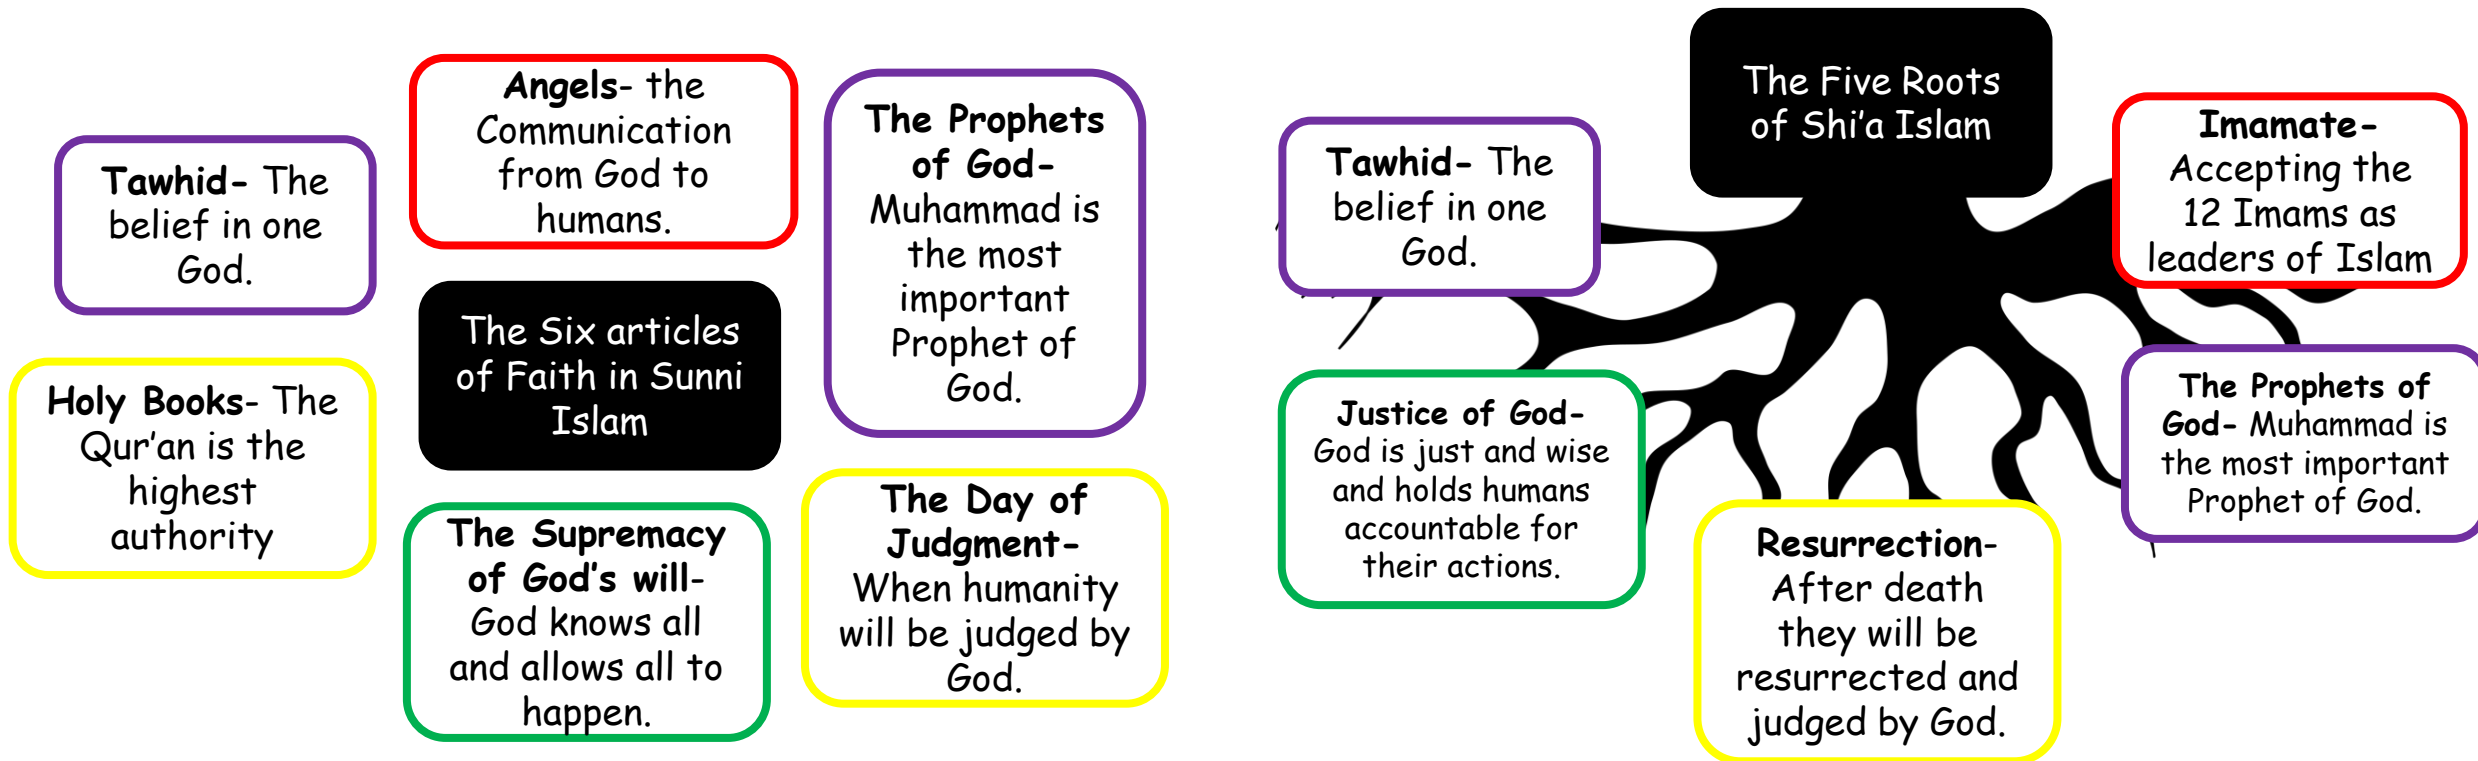

Muslims accept that bad things happen and they are 'meant to be'

The Supremacy of God's will

- God is the creator therefore nothing happens unless God allows it, whether it is good or bad.
- Everything happens under God's will.
- The supremacy of God's will is an article of faith.
- God's will is supreme and above all things.
- Muslims often add the words 'God willing' (Inshallah) after they promise to do something.
- This lead to the belief that God controls everything and humans do not have Free Will.

Key beliefs of Sunni and Shi'a Islam

Sunni Islam	Shi'a Islam
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> When Muhammad died, Sunni Muslims believe that the Qur'an and the Sunnah had the authority to guide Muslims. They elected Abu Bakr to be their leader (Caliph) to make sure people follow God's laws. The Caliph's don't make the laws, they enforce them. Sunni meaning followers of the Sunnah. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Shi'a Muslims believe that Muhammad had names his cousin Ali as his successor. Ali and his supporters thought that the true leaders (Imams) had to be descendants of Muhammad and chosen by God. Shi'a Muslims only accept the sayings of Muhammad that have been passed to Ali or his followers.

Nature of God

'God is the greatest':

Every day Muslims hear and say the words 'Allahu Akbar' meaning God is the greatest.

The names of God

- God has revealed himself to the people through Muhammad and the Holy Books.
- There are 99 names of God in the Qur'an.
- These names help Muslims to understand God's nature.
- Many Muslims memorise the names of God and recite them when praying.
- They help Muslims to feel God's presence.

"The Most Excellent Names belong to God: use them to call on Him."

"He is with you wherever you are."

Immanent: Within all things and close to his people

Justice and Fair: He treats people fairly and justly, and requires Muslims to do the same. Links to the Day of Judgement.

Merciful: He understands suffering, cares for them and forgives if they are truly sorry.

Qualities of God

Beneficent: Source of all goodness. Life and the Earth is a gift.

Omnipotent: He is the creator, sustainer and owner of all things. He is all powerful

Transcendent: Beyond all things

Angels

The belief in angels in Islam is called Malaikah

Beliefs about Angels

- One of the six articles for Sunni Islam.
- Angels are part of the unseen world.
- Created from light.
- Receive God's word and pass them to the prophets.
- They are pure and sinless.
- They do not have free will.
- They live to please and worship God.
- The power to take human form. Example- Ibrahim's story and Mary (appeared as men)

Jibril

- Also called Gabriel.
- He is an archangel and is a trusted messenger of God.
- Jibril relayed the Qur'an to Muhammad.
- He appeared to Muhammad when he was a child and purified his heart.
- When Muhammad was 40 he appeared to him and told him what God wanted him to do and guided him throughout his entire life.

Mika'il

- High ranking archangel.
- The angel of mercy.
- God assigned Mika'il to reward the righteous for the good during their lives.
- He also sends the rain, thunder and lightening to earth.
- Mika'il warns that anyone who is an enemy of God's angels is also an enemy of God.

Israfil

- Will blow a trumpet to announce the day of judgement.

Others

- Record actions of humans in the book of deeds. Used on the day of judgement.
- Guardian angels and look after us from conception until our death.
- The angel of death and his helpers take people's souls to God.
- Angels escort people to heaven and hell.

Predestination

Predestination-The idea that God knows everything and determines everything that will happen in the universe.

What is it?

- God has everything written down that determines everything that is going to happen in the universe,
- It is written in the 'book of decrees'.
- Links to the supremacy of God's will

Link to Human Freedom

- Shi'a Muslims believe that God knows all but does not decide all- meaning we have free will/ choice.
- God is the creator of time and therefore is not bound by it. He is outside of time. This means he knows what has happened, is happening and what will happen.
- Humans act freely and God just knows what they will do.

"Only what God has decreed will happen to us. He is our Master: let the believers put their trust in God."

The Day of Judgement

- God will judge humans for their actions on Earth.
- This is why God has given humans free will, to make judgement fair.
- He will punish those for their bad choices and reward those for the good.
- God puts the responsibility back to people even though he knows what they are going to do.

"God does not change the condition of a people [for the worse] unless they change what is in themselves."

Life after death

Akhirah:

The belief in everlasting life after death.

Beliefs about life after death

- Muslims believe that when they die a person still has a conscious existence in the grave.
- They enter a state of waiting called barzakh which means barrier.
- They are waiting for the day of judgement.
- While lying in the grave, God will send two angels to question them about their faith. This results in their rewards and punishments.
- Others believe that they will stay in their graves until the end of the world when the day of judgement will come.

Accept suffering and know what God will provide justice

Encourages responsibility for their actions

How does it influence Muslims?

Avoid sin and do the right thing

Aware they are accountable for their actions

Prophethood and Adam

What is a prophet?

- Prophets are God's chosen people to bring the message of Islam to people.
- Belief in prophets is known as Risalah.
- Method of communication between God and humans.
- God gives instructions to prophets to teach people about how he wants them to live.
- They are considered role models to believers.
- They are good people who live according to God's will.

Prophet Adam

- First man on earth and the first prophet of Islam.
- Created by God from the dust of the ground.
- Father of the human race.
- God taught Adam the names of all things.
- God then asked Adam to teach the angels. The angels then bowed to him
- Iblis (the Devil) refused to bow and was thrown out of paradise and he vowed to tempt humans to sin.
- God created Eve (Hawwa) for Adam and they lived in the garden of Eden.
- Iblis deceived them into disobeying God and eating from the tree.
- They were thrown from paradise and brought sin into the world.

"He taught Adam the name of all things.,,"

First to learn to plant seeds

First to cook food

Ibrahim's link to:

The Ka'aba

- Small building in the middle of the mosque in Mecca.
- House of God and holiest place in Islam.
- Original built by Adam but was destroyed by the flood at the time of Noah.
- Ibrahim and Ishmael rebuilt It on the same site.

Ishmael

- Ibrahim had a dream to sacrifice his son to God.
- Ibrahim's willingness to be obedient save Ismael's life and God swapped him with a lamb.
- He was a man of faith.
- During the festival of Id-ul-Adha, Muslim's slaughter an animal to remember Ibrahim's willingness to sacrifice his son.

Hajj

- Pilgrimage returns Muslims to Ibrahim's perfect faith.
- At Mina, Muslims throw stones at the pillars in the same way Ibrahim threw stones at the devil that tried to tempt him.
- When pilgrims run between the two hills they drink the water from Zamzam. This remembers the story of Ibrahim's wife Hagar, who searched for water for her and Ishmael and God rewarded her with the well.
- Mecca is sometimes known as the city of Ibrahim.

The Story of Ibrahim

- Ibrahim always wondered about who created the universe,
- He declared his belief in one God (Allah).
- He determined to stop idol worship.
- One day, when everyone left the town, he took an axe and destroyed all the idols in the temple.
- He left an axe around the neck of the biggest idol. He asked why people worship an idol that cannot speak, hear or defend themselves.
- Ibrahim was burned alive.
- A miracle occurred and burned the chains and he walked out completely unscathed.
- Many people began to follow God.

Prophet Muhammad and the Imamate

Muhammad

Muhammad's Life

- He is known as the last and greatest prophet.
- Born in Mecca, was an orphan and married a wealthy widow, Khadija at the age of 25.
- Angel Jibril appeared to him with a message from God. For more than 20 years, Muhammad received further revelations from God making the Qur'an.

Muhammad's preaching

- After his revelation, Muhammad proclaimed that God is one.
- He challenged the people of Mecca to give up cheating, gambling, drinking and idol worship.
- Muhammad fled persecution with his followers to Madinah in 622CE.
- This was the start of Hajj and Ummah.
- After the night journey, Muhammad gathered a tribe of 10,000 Muslims converts and conquered the city in the name of Allah.

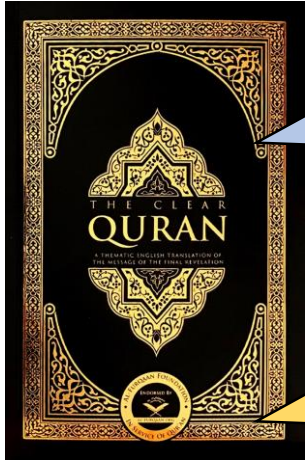

The Night Journey

- Muhammad recorded this in the Qur'an.
- The angel Jibril took Muhammad to Jerusalem on a horse-like creature with wings.
- He then ascended into heaven and spoke to God and the past prophets.
- Isa (Jesus) told Muhammad that people should pray 5 times a day.

The Imamate

- When Muhammad died, Muslims split into two groups, Shi'a and Sunni.
- Shi'a believe that Muhammad named Ali, his successor- he became the first Imam.
- Shi'a believe that Ali appointed him by divine instruction and therefore leadership should follow in the family line.
- The Twelver branch of Shi'a Islam believes that there have been 12 Imams in total.
- Muhammad al-Mahdi was the last Imam and kept alive and hidden somewhere on earth and will return with Jesus to bring justice and equality.
- The Imams rule justly and are also the only people who can interpret the Qur'an without fault.

Holy Books

"This is the Scripture in which there is no doubt, containing guidance for those who are mindful of God."

"This is truly a glorious Qur'an on a preserved Tablet."

The Qur'an

The Contents

- Mixture of historical accounts and advice on how to follow God.
- It begins with a short prayer to God and is used in the daily prayers.
- Arranged in length of chapters.
