Introduction

- 1 Alderbrook is an inclusive mainstream secondary school. We have 1500 students which includes a sixth form and an additionally resourced provision for students with Autism. The Student Development Department supports teaching and learning throughout the school. We provide support for all students and in particular those who experience barriers to their learning or who may have a specific learning difficulty, special educational need or disability. We are committed to ensuring that all of our students have full access to a broad curriculum and are able to enjoy all the resources and opportunities available at this school.

‘All children and young people are entitled to an education that enables them to make progress so that they:

- achieve their best
 - become confident individuals living fulfilling lives, and
 - make a successful transition into adulthood, whether into employment, further or higher education or training’ (DfE 2014: 92)
- 2 ‘Provision for pupils with Special Educational Needs (SEN) is a matter for the school as a whole. All teachers are teachers of children with special educational needs.’ (DfES 2001: 59)

The Curriculum

Whole school approaches: The universal offer to children and young people	Additional, targeted support & provision	Specialist, individualised support & provision
The school is committed to providing a challenging and enjoyable, broad and balanced curriculum which is accessible and available to all students. To this end we recruit highly qualified and well trained teaching staff who use their best endeavours to deliver a stimulating and engaging curriculum. Curriculum areas and departments have recently undertaken audits of Schemes of Learning, to ensure a progressive and cohesive learning journey for students through the content of knowledge and skills required both at each level and to prepare them for the next level of the curriculum. All teaching staff receive regular high quality, updated training, in the latest teaching and learning strategies to improve and maximise the learning progress for all students. Students can expect a high quality teaching and learning experience. On entry to the school, Key Stage 2 data is used to provide baseline information for each individual, in each subject area and their current thresholds are identified. Additional information is acquired with reading age and spelling age testing for all Year 7 students. The level of support provided is 'needs led' and we take a graduated approach to addressing SEND needs of our students. This is informed by the 'Assess; Plan; Do; Review' process. Where students have been identified by teachers as not making expected progress, in spite of the differentiation which is part of high quality teaching, they may benefit from additional interventions. Reading is prioritised as it determines access to the whole curriculum. Students with the lowest reading ages in In Year 7 and Year 8, there are timetabled literacy lessons for some, in addition to their English lessons. Study Hub has a consistent HLTA lead, who liaises with mainstream teachers to acquire relevant study tasks, supporting students to access and complete work, thus supporting emotional needs and learning needs and minimising the impact of absence from timetabled specialist lessons. We also work closely with specialist outside agencies to supplement the curriculum for those with a higher level of need. Students in the Alderbrook ARC follow a mainstream curriculum, differentiated to meet their needs with additional learning opportunities to support their specific areas of need associated with their autism, which helps prepare them for transition to the mainstream provision in Year 9.

Appendix A – Frequently Asked Questions

1 How do people in school know if a pupil needs extra help?

All teachers are provided with information about the students they teach in each class. We have a system called Provision Map which works with Class Charts to make information easily accessible to staff at the point of learning. Where there is a higher immediate level of need, information for individual students is shared verbally with colleagues at staff briefings and is readily available as required. We have detailed information on our electronic database SIMs with photographs of students. This forms the basis of the Provision Map documents which include learning plans and pupil passports.

2 What should I do if I think my child may have special educational needs?

In the first instance contact your child's form tutor, or pastoral manager, who can pass on your concerns.

3 Who is responsible for the progress and success of my child in school?

Parents, Teachers, Senior Leadership Team and Headteacher.

4 How is the curriculum matched to my child's needs?

Assessment and monitoring, support is 'needs led'. Interventions are informed by the 'Graduated Response'

5 How will I, and my child, know how well they are doing?

Students are very much included in the monitoring of their own progress. They are encouraged to respond to teacher comments and be involved in a dialogue of how they are doing and how they can make progress. Parents receive regular reports on the attainment and learning progress of their child. There are opportunities to meet with teachers during the year and where there is a higher level of need, more frequent review meetings are arranged.

6 How can you help me to support my child's learning?

The school invites parents and carers to take every opportunity to attend parental information events where information is shared about the learning in school.

7 What support is there for my child's overall wellbeing?

Students can be confident that there are systems and adults dedicated to their wellbeing beginning with the Pastoral team, safe guarding team and SEND team.

8 How do I know that my child is safe in school?

Your child's safety and happiness and well-being are critical in supporting their learning and progress. Every child is protected by legislation which dictates the systems and procedures for child protection and safeguarding. Equally as important, the leaders, teachers and support staff at Alderbrook are committed to ensuring the safety, happiness and success of your children.

9 How is my child included in activities outside the classroom including school trips?

All school trips are planned and designed with accessibility in mind. This is an inclusive school and the needs of all students are considered, in accordance with the Equality Act (2010).

10 How accessible is the school environment?

See the information in the main body of this report

11 How will school prepare and support me/my child through the transition from key stage to key stage and beyond?

Alderbrook School works closely with partner primary schools and local colleges to ensure the efficient exchange of information about each student. We arrange transition visits and events to familiarise and reassure students during these crucial periods of change.

12 How is the decision made about what type and how much support each pupil receives?

In this school we make every effort to support our young people on a 'needs led' basis. When a need is identified, the level of need is assessed and the necessary resources are allocated. We use a cyclical approach of 'Assess; Plan; Do; Review'. This means that if a student is not making the expected progress, teachers will initially differentiate resources and teaching strategies in class. After a suitable review period, further interventions can be introduced to support a young person to accelerate their progress. Once reviewed we expect that a student may be working at expected progress once more and the intervention is no longer appropriate. If this is not the case, we may advise the involvement of outside agencies, to assess and make recommendations to support learning, or indeed provide direct involvement. We encourage parents and carers to be involved and included at each stage.
