

The Changing Economic World

Different measures of development- GNI, HDI and the limitations of them—p.194-197)

The demographic transition model (DTM)- what is it? What is each stage of development like? (P.198-201)

Causes and Consequences of uneven development (why are some countries able to develop more than others?) - p.202-203 and 206-207—Also what are the links between wealth and health ? P.204-205

Strategies to reduce the development gap- Tourism p.209 and 216-217 Jamaica as an example

Strategies to reduce the development gap- Investment and industrial development p.208-209. Aid and intermediate technology p.210-211.

Further strategies to reduce the development gap—Fair Trade p.212-213. Debt relief and micro-finance p.214-215.

Nigeria- location and importance nationally and globally—p.218-219

Nigeria's Political, social , environmental and cultural contexts p.220-221 and trading relationships p.222-223 And its changing industrial structure p.224-225

Nigeria- the role of TNC's p.226-227 and aid, p.228-229 having impacts on development on Nigeria.

Managing environmental issues in Nigeria p.230-231 and quality of life now in Nigeria p.232-233

UK in a post industrial economy- what will it be like, what are the features of it?p.235-241. Its impact on rural communities p.242-243

The North-South divide p.248-249—Changing transport infrastructure p.244-247 and The UK and the wider world- global links through trade, political links p.250-251