Sixth Form Learning and Wellbeing Manager

Full Time (37 hours) Term-time plus Insets (39 Weeks + 4 days)

Band D (£30,296- £34,834 pro rata)

Starting salary £26,494

We are looking to appoint an enthusiastic and motivated person to join an established Sixth Form team within this successful, innovative and high-performing 11-18 school.

The person appointed would work as part of a team to identify strategies and provide students with the necessary support to be able to achieve their potential in school by being ready to learn and able to participate in the learning opportunities that the school offers.

We would welcome applications from professionals who may have had previous experience working with young people or who may have some knowledge about 16-18 education, in particular the processes and challenges that our students may face.

We are looking for a colleague who:

- is passionate about building positive relationships with all stakeholders within our school community
- is committed to developing independent, confident learners
- is committed to inclusive education
- can sustain high quality intervention
- demonstrates energy, creativity and commitment
- is willing to actively contribute to all aspects of school life, including our rich and diverse extra-curricular and enrichment programme

We are proud to offer:

- interesting, engaging, enthusiastic students who want to learn
- a supportive and inclusive staff and governing body
- a hugely successful, ambitious school - determined to build on the standards we currently achieve
- consistently high GCSE and A Level results
- a proven track record in - and full commitment to - the professional development of colleagues
- a happy working environment where staff wellbeing is prioritised

- a well-resourced school with extensive grounds
- a long established record of low staff turnover. What does that tell you?

As part of your application, please share the reasons why your application should be considered and why you wish to work with the students here at Alderbrook.

Applications are also available from the school website or from Mrs Anna Whittington at the school by email.

Closing date: 9.00am Thursday 11th April 2024

We can't wait to hear from you!

The school is committed to the safeguarding and welfare of young people. Any successful applicant will be required to undertake an enhanced DBS.
