Gatsby Benchmark 1

A stable careers programme

100%

Your institution or organisation has met 100% of the 8 assessment areas in Gatsby Benchmark 1.

These questions are about Gatsby Benchmark 1: A stable careers programme.

Institutions and organisations should have an embedded programme of careers education and guidance that is known and understood by learners, parents and carers, staff, governors, employers and other agencies.

Question:

Achieved?

1.1 Does your school have a trained Careers Leader?

1.2 Does your school have a careers programme that aligns with the following guidelines?

Is tailored to the needs of all pupils, including disadvantaged young people?

Has the explicit backing of the board of governors?

Is underpinned by learning outcomes and sequenced appropriately for your cohort of young people?

Is linked to the whole school development plan?

Sets out how parents and carers will be engaged with careers education?

Has the explicit backing of the headteacher?

1.3 Does your school publish your careers programme on your website?

- 1.3.1 Is the information about your careers programme on your website communicated in ways that enable different groups to engage with it? ✔
- 1.4 Is your careers programme communicated in different formats (beyond text on the website) so that it's accessible to users with different needs? ✔
- 1.5 Does your school regularly evaluate your careers programme? ✔
- 1.5.1 In the last 12 months, have you made any changes to your careers programme as a result of past evaluations? ✔
- 1.6 Does evaluation of your careers programme take into account feedback from the following groups? ✔

Gatsby Benchmark 2

Learning from careers and labour market information

Your institution or organisation has met 85% of the 7 assessment areas in Gatsby Benchmark 2.

These questions are about Gatsby Benchmark 2: Learning from career and labour market information.

All learners, parents and carers, teachers and staff who support learners should have access to good quality, up-to-date information about future pathways, study options and labour market opportunities. Young people with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) and their parents and carers may require different or additional information. All learners will need the support of an informed adviser to make the best use of available information.

| Question: | Achieved? |
|--|-----------|
| 2.1 Approximately what proportion of pupils have access to information about careers, pathways and the labour market to help inform their decisions on study options and/or next steps during the Key Stages offered at your school? | |
